MAYSVILLE WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO AND INTERURBAN WRECK

Mrs. Judith Rice, of Forest Avenue, Dies From Injuries Received in Wreck Between Georgetown and Lexington Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Judith Rice, of Forest avenue, and Mrs. William Craig, of Lexington, died Saturday afternoon from injuries received in a collision of an auto in which they were riding and an interurban car late Saturday.

The Lexington Herald tells this story of the fatal accident: The accident occurred in front of Mrs. Nellie Stevenson's, where about twenty-five of the Stevenson family had gathered for a family reunion. Dr. Stevenson, with his wife, who was driving the car, his sister-in-law, Mrs. William Craig, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Rice, were coming to Lexington to meet an aunt, who was to be added to the family gathering.

Dr. Stevenson, who was conscious at St. Joseph's hospital when interviewed, said that his wife saw the car first, and cried out, but that they were already going too fast and were too near the track to stop safely on the closer side, and that she put on a burst of speed in an endeavor to get across in front of the approaching car. The car, which was coming down grade, was traveling at a high rate of speed. Dr. Stevenson said, and struck the rear end of the automobile before it was clear of the track.

Mrs. Rice, who was sitting on the back seat on the side nearer the interurban, was struck, and her body considerably mangled. She died on the way to St. Joseph's Hospital. Mrs. Craig was brought to the hospital unconscious and remained in a delirious condition until she died. Her arm was cut and she died from the effects of internal injuries.

No whistle was blown to warn the occupants of the car of the approach of the interurban, according to both Dr. Stevenson and Wallace Muir, attorney for the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Company. "There was no road crossing near the scene of the accident, and motormen are not required to blow for private crossings," said Attorney Muir last night.

Will Farmer and Clay Taylor were conductor and motorman, respectively, of the interurban.

The injured were brought immediately to the hospital by Charles E. Stevenson, brother of Dr. Stevenson, and placed in the care of a doctor. The car in which Dr. Stevenson and his party were driving, a Ford sedan, was not much injured, the front remaining intact in almost the same spot where it was struck.

Mrs. Rice, who before her marriage was Miss Judith Amanda Cooke, was one of the most prominent women of Maysville, and was interested in many business affairs, despite her 80 years. She was the widow of James H. Rice, and is survived by nine children, Dr. Jeff Rice and Judge William H. Rice, of Maysville; Frank H. Rice, of Helena; S. Jewell Rice, of Lexington; John Y. Rice, of Fayetteville, Ark.; Mrs. Edward Bullock and Mrs. Walter Worthington, of Maysville; Mrs. R. H. Stevenson and Mrs. William Walker, of Lexington; two sisters, Mrs. John M. Ross and Mrs. Homer Black, of Liberty, Mo., and one brother, Frank Tomlinson, of Fort Worth, Texas.

The body was brought here Sunday afternoon and taken to the home in Forest avenue where the funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Services by Rev. Loos of the Maysville Christian church and Dr. John Barbour of the local Presbyterian church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAYS.

Several Sunday schools observed rally day yesterday which, together with the fine weather accounts for the good attendance. Next Sunday the Third Street M. E. church will observe the day. Extensive plans are being made to make it a great day. It will not only be rally day but the day, the second Sunday in October marks the seventy-third anniversary of the church. Suitable observance will be made. The morning service will be a combined service with promotions and other interesting features. The pageant will be given at the evening hour. Rehearsals will be held nearly every night this week so that every character will be letter-perfect. The practice this evening will begin at 6:30 for the smaller children and 7 o'clock for all.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Third Street M. E. church will meet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Election of officers. Every member should be present.

Wyandotte Tribe I. O. R. M. will confer the Warrior's degree on several adopted brothers Tuesday night. The degree team will take notice and be present.

TEEN AGE CHILDREN TO BE PLANNED FOR

Miss Wilson to Represent Mason County at State Sunday School Convention.

Miss Mary Wilson will leave Tuesday morning to attend the State Sunday school convention at Louisville. Miss Wilson will carry with her a splendid report for Mason county.

With their apportionment met in full and with increased interest and attendance she can give a report that our Sunday schools can be proud of. The county executive committee met with Miss Wilson Sunday afternoon to plan for some specific work for the boys and girls of the teen age. This will be the next big effort of the committee. The committee decided to have a banquet for those of this age some time early in November. Miss Wilson will endeavor to secure an expert in boys and girls work during her stay in Louisville. Upon her return the committee will at once make plans for the banquet.

SUCCESSFUL RALLY DAY.

The First Presbyterian school reports a most successful rally day. Not only did they go up head in attendance, but they made an offering of $65.49 a part of which goes toward paying the tuition of a girl in the Pikeville Presbyterian school, the remainder going to the fund for immigrant work. The superintendent thinks the booster meeting for adult classes last Wednesday night had much to do with awakening interest in the work. Their adult classes were unusually large.

EIGHT CAUGHT IN CRAP GAME RAID.

Officers Carpenter, McNamara and Wells made a raid on a crap game in Morrison alley, Fifth ward, at about 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning and arrested Manuel Green, Walter Lewis, Wheeler Lewis, John Stokes, Joe Rawls, Willis Barbour, Wesley Lane and Jack Gopdes. All of the men were charged with gambling and in default of $50 bail each, they were taken to the county jail. The trial will be held before Police Judge John L. Whitaker at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Women and men both register Tuesday.

TO THE WOMEN OF MAYSVILLE

Tomorrow, for the first time in the history of our state, the women of Kentucky are to be enrolled as American citizens, sharing with men the right of suffrage. As this is a new experience it is but natural that it should be regarded by many as an ordeal from which they shrink. Kentucky women always pointed with pride to the women of Bryant's Station, who faced the arrows of Indians in order to secure water for their families. The woman of today will not have to face Indian arrows but to secure pure water, or good government, she may have to face that which to many is far worse, the shafts of ridicule from the narrow-minded. But the Kentucky woman of today is no less brave than her ancestors.

Some of you are pleading that your place is home. No one would deny this nor wish it otherwise. But we are coming to realize that all the great questions of the day, all the world problems are home questions and home problems after all. The city, state and nation just a collection of homes and running the government but housekeeping on a large scale.

Many of you are saying that you have no time but it takes no longer to vote than it does to pay your taxes, water rent, or gas bill.

There are some of you who shrink from mixing with the "rough crowds" at the polls but you will stand in the crowded lobby of the theater four-hitting elbows with all classes just to enjoy a picture show.

There are a few who have said that they did not understand the political situation, that they did not know enough. It is not necessary to know anything or understand the situation in order to register.

Register first, then study the two platforms and make your decision. If you fail to register tomorrow you forfeit the right to vote on any question that may come up during the year.

Many of you do not believe that equal suffrage is best for our country. You did not want the ballot. Many did not believe in war, few wanted it but when America entered the war there was but one thing for the loyal American to do. The majority have decided that women must enter politics and there is but one thing for the loyal American woman to do. You were not slackers during the war. You will not be a political slacker now. As you were anxious to be counted then among those upon whom your country could depend, so you should be willing now to be counted or registered among

LEAVES SCHOOL ROOM FOR EDITORIAL DESK

Prof. John Hurst Adams Resigns as Principal of Minerva School to Become Editor of Indiana Daily.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Mason County Board of Education held this morning at the office of County Superintendent Turnipseed, Prof. John Hurst Adams resigned as principal of the Minerva Consolidated school and his wife as a teacher in that school.

Mr. Adams has accepted a position as editor of a daily newspaper at Franklin, Ind., and will begin his editorial duties on or about the 15th of this month. He will be associated with Roscoe Gilmore Stott, famous lecturer and editor in the publication of this newspaper and will also be connected with Franklin College which is located in that city.

Mr. Adams has been one of the best school men Mason county has had in recent years and his many friends are sorry to see him leave. He is quite well qualified for his new position having gained much experience on Lexington newspapers and having also done much newspaper work while in this county.

DIPHTHERIA IN COUNTY SCHOOLS

Several cases of diphtheria have developed in three of the Mason county schools. The cases have all been reported to the Health department and steps have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The County Board of Education has placed the matter entirely within the hands of the Health department pledging their support to Dr. Reynolds.

MRS. GEORGE ARNOLD DEAD.

Mrs. George Arnold, aged 67 years, died at her home near Mt. Carmel Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock after a short illness of paralysis. She is survived by her husband and several children. Funeral will be held at the home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and burial will be made at the Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Every voter in Maysville MUST register.

those upon whom the country can depend.

We feel confident that you will regard the right of suffrage a sacred duty and not a mere privilege which you can avail yourself of or not as the notion strikes you. The first step in the discharge of your duty is registration—tomorrow.

DO NOT BE A SLACKER.

A WOMAN VOTER.

DEMAND FOR MASON COUNTY POULTRY IS STRONG JUST NOW

Many Orders for Pure Bred Mason County Fowls Proves that Pure Bred Stock Always Pays.

The difference between scrub stock and the purebred kind has been demonstrated very clearly this summer by the sales which have been made by Mason county Holstein breeders. As a further proof of the difference in the profit made in raising the good kind of livestock County Agent Kirk has received within the past week orders for pure bred poultry, at prices ranging from $2.50 to $3 each.

A Louisville firm has written for 150 Rhode Island Red pullets, a Cincinnati man wants 12 Barred Rock hens and 50 Barred Rock pullets, and the State Hospital for the Insane of Louisiana has ordered 25 Barred Rock cockerels. There are a multitude of other orders which can be obtained if Mason county can produce the goods.

Mr. Kirk is very anxious that every one of these orders be filled, and he has requested the Ledger to announce that he needs 25 Barred Rock pullets, 25 Barred Rock cockerels, and 150 Rhode Island Red pullets to fill the orders now unfilled. If Mason county poultry breeders cannot fill these orders they will go elsewhere, and an opportunity to establish a permanent market at double or treble the price received ordinarily will be lost.

Any one having chickens suitable for use in filling the orders referred to is urged to get in touch with Mr. Kirk at once, in order that he may accept them. It is not necessary to have fancy show birds—good utility stock free from disqualifications is all that is required—at the prices offered. Show birds will bring as high as fifty or one hundred dollars, if they are the right kind.

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS

BRINGING TWO INDICTMENTS.

The Mason county grand jury for the September term of court adjourned finally this afternoon returning into court two indictments. One was against William Bland, Jr., for seduction and the other against Walter F. Mains for breach of the peace. The minutes from lower courts against Lucy Walker, Frank Bramel and Leo Moran were dismissed from the jury not sufficient evidence being found to indict.

Polls open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. Tuesday.

Constantin Brun, Denmark's minister to the United States, will receive the congratulations of his colleagues in the foreign diplomatic corps in Washington today, on the occasion of his sixtieth birthday anniversary. M. Brun is a native of Copenhagen, a graduate of the university of that capital, who, after service in the army, turned to diplomacy and entered the Danish legation at Berlin. Later came the same sort of training at Paris.

Twenty-five years ago he was named minister to the United States. After three years he was shifted to London, where he filled the same post for four years. Then he was ordered back to Washington, and since October, 1912 he has been Denmark's minister there. He represented Denmark at the first Hague Peace Conference.

ON THE FARM IN KENTUCKY

Gather Your Seed Corn Early.
Though the corn crop in Kentucky promises to be the best in years yet because of the late spring and cool summer and recent wet weather, an early frost will mean fifty per cent. or more of soft and sappy corn on the farms of Kentucky this year. Therefore the prospects are good that the farmer who does not gather and dry his seed corn early this fall will have in the spring of 1921 the same situation as he had in the spring of 1918. For care and selection of seed corn write the Experiment Station for Circular No. 13.

A New Wheat For Kentucky.
As a result of a number of year's work in breeding wheat the Kentucky Experiment Station announces the development of a new variety of wheat which has been named "Ashland." It is a selection from Fultz which variety it closely resembles. It has all the good qualities of this old well known sort, but has a stiffer straw and at the station has proved to be a somewhat better yielder. It has also been singularly free from scab and other diseases of wheat. This year the station has furnished a number of selected farmers in Kentucky with seed of Ashland and the crops grown from this will be sold for seed in 1921. Several thousand bushels of seed ought therefore, to be available for distribution in the state.

Apply Acid Phosphate on Wheat Crop.
On all the soils in Kentucky outside of the Blue Grass region, wheat responds to acid phosphate treatment very remarkably. Fortunately, the wheat crop is the most convenient place in a rotation to apply acid phosphate as it can be applied through the fertilizer distributing attachment on the wheat drill with a small amount of extra labor. Apply the acid phosphate at the rate of from 200 to 300 pounds per acre and the succeeding clover and corn or other crops will be benefited also.

Hot Water Treatment For Loose Smut.
In many instances loose smut, or as it is generally known to farmers, blasted heads of wheat, cause considerable loss. As it does not affect the quality of the grain the losses are not appreciable, but sometimes they range as high as ten per cent.

Loose smut cannot be controlled by formalin or bluestone treatment as the smut spore has germinated and grown into the seed and it exists there as a tiny smut plant. It can be destroyed only by a treatment known as the modified hot water treatment. This treatment is rather difficult to give, and it is too expensive for the treatment of seed for the entire crop. It is practical, however, to use it in treating enough seed for a seed plot. The treatment is as follows:

Soak the wheat in cold water for four to six hours, but not more than six hours. Then dip for a moment in water at a temperature of 120 degrees. Then transfer to water at 129 degrees and leave for ten minutes. Dip immediately in cold water; then spread and dry. Use about a half bushel of wheat each time, and put in a basket or coarse sack. Have a thermometer and arrange so that the water can be kept at the exact temperature indicated. In no case should the temperature exceed 133 degrees and then the time of treatment should be reduced. Some grain will be injured and it is best to sow about 25 per cent more of the treated seed. Treat only enough for a special seed patch. As loose smut is carried by the wind for a considerable distance, the seed patch should be a separate field some distance from the main wheat field.

The West Point gridiron square is lacking in veteran players from last year, but there is some promising material among the candidates, and the Cadets expect to even up for their defeat at the hands of the Navy last November.

Do You Want Your Kidneys Examined?

Kidney troubles are getting more common every day. Government health bureau figures say deaths from this cause are 72 per cent more than 80 years ago.

Anybody who suffers constant backache, who has dizzy spells, headache and urinary disorders should suspect kidney weakness. Overworked kidneys must have a rest. Take things easier; live more carefully. Take a good kidney remedy to build the kidneys up again.

But be sure to get Doan's Kidney Pills—the oldest, the most widely used, the best recommended of all kidney pills, now in use all over the civilized world. Ask your neighbor. Don't experiment with your kidneys. Thousands have already tested Doan's. You have their experience to go by. Plenty of cases right here in Maysville. Here's one:

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "From the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills, which I buy at J. J. Wood & Son's Drug Store, I have every reason to recommend them. When my kidneys have been irregular in action, or I have suffered from weakness and lameness in the small of my back, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven sufficient to quickly cure an attack."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schatzmann had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Symptoms of diseased kidneys are puffiness under the eyes, sallow skin, floating specks, dry mouth, biliousness, nervousness, backache, rheumatic pains, swollen or stiff joints, sore muscles. Many bed-ridden sufferers owe their condition to their failure to take heed of the first warning of kidney trouble.
